ABOUT US

Shelley Dale OHS Services has been helping clients achieve their work health and safety goals since 2008.

Whether your focus is compliance, continual improvement or gaining a competitive edge, we work with you to tailor a WHS program that delivers what your business needs. We provide support for both long and short term projects, and aim to align with your organisation's culture, values and people, to help you achieve results as soon as possible.

With over 20 years of experience managing work health and safety in all types of work environments, you have the reassurance of expert advice backed by recognised tertiary OHS qualifications, professional memberships and full insurance. All industries, no business too small or large.
